

Fuchu is the host town for Austria and Australia

What's a host town?

Using the opportunity of the Tokyo 2020 Games, local governments look to have mutual exchanges on a human, economic and cultural scale through inviting pre-games camps and register with the national government as a host town. It is expected that a nation-wide spread of host town helps promote the Games all over the country.

Why Austria and Australia?

Fuchu entered into a friendship city alliance with Hernals in Vienna in 1992. We have continued youth exchanges and other activities since then. This long-standing relationship has developed deep ties and led to Fuchu registering as a host town in December 2017. So far, host town business has included offering an Austrian school lunch. We are scheduled to have exchanges that deepen mutual ties including inviting Austria's national table tennis team.

Also, in January 2018, Fuchu City signed a memorandum of understanding to hold pre-Games camps with Baseball Australia in connection with the Olympic Games Tokyo 2020, and in February, we are registered as a host town for Australia. Up until now, Australia's national baseball and wheelchair basketball teams held pre-games camps in Fuchu, and also youth exchange activity of baseball with Robina High School was carried out.

Austria

A central European country rooted in music

Austria is located in central Europe. It covers 84,000 sq. kilometers, or about the same area as Hokkaido. Its population is about 8.8 million. The capital is Vienna, and there are nine states. Vienna is known as a city of music and has produced many famous musicians, including Mozart. It is a city attractive for its wealth of culture.

Pre-Games Camps in Fuchu

Fuchu City is located near Tokyo Stadium, where the Tokyo 2020 Games will be held. We have hosted pre-games camps from various countries.

What's a Pre-Game Camp?

A pre-game camp is a training camp to help Olympic and Paralympic Committee members and sports organizations from various countries adapt to the time change, climate before the Games. Athletes will be able to train in a comfortable environment, so that they can provide their best performance at the time of their events. Hosts of the camps expect regional promotion and the advancement of international relations.

Rugby

Japan's national Rugby Sevens team, which aims for a medal in the Tokyo 2020 Games, established camps at Fuchu Asahi Football Park.

Table tennis

Fuchu city and Austrian representative are in under conference about pre-games camps in Fuchu. (as of November 2018)

Baseball

Road Race in Fuchu

The individual road race uses regular streets. Everyone starts at the same time and races to the goal. The sport has lots of speed and thrills. It is clear that the key to winning is leg strength, but it is also important to note that competition depends largely on how a cyclist overcomes air resistance caused by speed. The course starts at Metropolitan Musashinonomori Park and goes through Tokyo, Kanagawa, Yamanashi and Shizuoka and finishes at the Fuji Speedway. The total course is 244km for men and 147km for women. In Fuchu City, the course begins at Metropolitan Musashinonomori Park, goes down Tohachi-doro Ave., Koganei-kaido Ave., Sakura-dori St., past the rows of Zelkova Trees, and onto Fuchu-kaido Ave.. The most scenic part is when the course goes by the nationally designated natural monument of Zelkova Trees in front of Fuchu Station.
